Glaze that conveys the feeling of "Sabi" from "Wabi-Sabi"

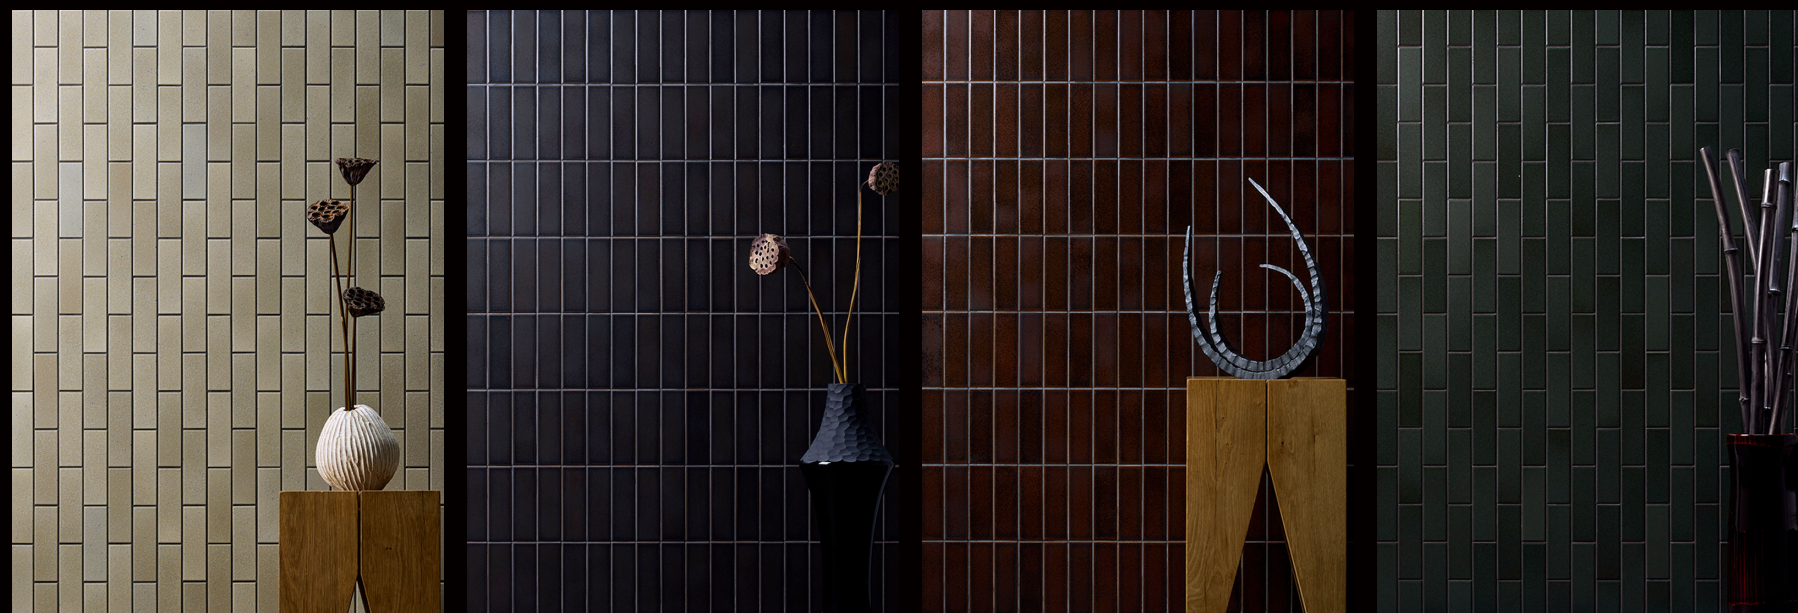

Japan has a unique aesthetic known as "Wabi-Sabi." Within this concept, "Sabi" refers to the beauty and taste perceived in the natural aging and weathering of objects over time. YOROI has been glazed to express the feeling of "Sabi." It is a tile with a calm atmosphere that resembles the appearance of rusted iron or moss-covered rocks, evoking the passage of time.

Simple shapes and beautiful grid texture

"YOROI" refers to Japanese armor, which is made by combining rectangular parts of iron or leather. The shape and color of "YOROI" are inspired by this. The beauty of its simple shape also lends an attractive grid-like texture.
